Two large hotels are now under construction, and several others will be built in the neighborhood. The upper portion of the Cahuenga Valley has long been celebrated for the production of early (winter) vegetables, frost being unknown. Chairman Frankenfield, of the Republican Central Committee, Favors It—A $5000 Damage Suit—A Peculiar Fire and Narrow Escape, Etc.

There is a big scare among the retail butchers and jobbers. Word reached the city yesterday that certain cattle men have been caught in the act of dressing for the market beef-cattle that have died on the road while being driven to this city. The charge comes from W. B. Johnson, Sheriff of Valley county, Neb. Mr. Johnson has been in the city several weeks, and has spent a good portion of his time making trips into the country. Several days ago he was riding out over the Inglewood road, and was met by several men driving young beef-cattle toward this city. The cattle acted as if they had been driven a number of miles, and many of them showed that they were diseased. In fact, before Mr. Johnson had passed through the band one of the beeves tumbled over and died. The whole band was so foot-sore and sick that they could make but slow time, and when Mr. Johnson returned over the same road in the afternoon he found that they had made but a few miles, and that two more of their number had died on the road only a few hundred yards from each other. Yesterday morning Mr. Johnson had occasion to go over the same road, and was astonished to see a couple of men skinning one of the dead beeves. It was one that had dropped and died on the day before. The two men seemed to be working under the direction of a heavy-set, dark-complexioned man who acted in a very confused manner when he saw Johnson watching his men. On going a little farther Johnson found that one of the sick beeves had been skinned, and that the hind quarters had been severed from the body. The same thing had been done to all three of the cattle that died the day before from disease, and Johnson watched the performance long enough to convince himself that the hind quarters were sold to retail butchers. On his return to the city, late in the afternoon, he looked up the Chief of Police and informed him of what he had seen.

"I am positive," said Mr. Johnson, "that they were preparing the diseased meat for the market. I saw the cattle and watched one of them die, and I know such meat should not be palmed off on the people of this city as good, healthy meat, when in reality it is not fit for hogs to eat. I could not learn the man's name, but he showed guilt in every feature of his face when he caught me looking at him, and had I known anything about your laws in such cases I think I would have brought him in. Over in my State we make it very warm for such men, and I hope your officers will catch him. It not only disgusts a person to imagine that he is eating diseased beef, but such food is liable to bring on disease. Yes, I am positive that the sick meat was brought to this city and sold to the retail butchers or some one of them, and if I had time I would like to help hunt the man down."

The Chief sent an officer out, but up to a late hour last night he had not succeeded in finding the man.

A CLOSE CALL.

A Mother and Child Caught in a Burning House.

Rather a peculiar fire occurred yesterday morning on the corner of Temple street and Toppan avenue. The house in which the fire was discovered was occupied by John Crandall, of Crandall Bro's, and was burned to the ground. The fire was caused by a coal oil lamp which exploded at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Crandall was alone in the house with a sick child at the time, but several neighbors rushed in and succeded as they thought in subduing the fire. They left and Mrs. Crandall and her child went to bed. Her husband did not go home until about 1 o'clock, and was frightened almost to death to see his home in flames. He gave the alarm, and officer Ribble, who happened to be near by, was attracted to the spot. The fire was just getting under headway and the officer, thinking the family had escaped from the house, started off to turn in the alarm. There was no alarm-box in the neighborhood so he sent the alarm by telephone. He then returned to the fire and was told that Mrs. Crandall and her child were still in the house. The whole building was wrapped in flames at that time and Ribble ran a great risk of losing his own life, but he rushed in and soon returned with the unfortunate lady and her sick child. The blaze had died out for want of further fuel before the engines reached the top of the long, steep hill, and they returned. The house was burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at $1200. No insurance,

Damage Suit Against a Street Rail-Road Company.

A complaint which would look well in a frame as a sample of the fashion in which a lawyer can twist the Queen's English into about forty times its natural length, was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday. It is the complaint of Mary Meyer vs. the Central Railway Company. Divested of legal verbosity, the grist of the plaintiff's allegations is that on the 14th of last August she boarded a car of the defendant corporation; that it was the duty of said corporation to hire competent conductors and drivers, but failed to do so; that when she was alighting from the car on Ninth street, near Mr. Jevne's, the car started up suddenly, throwing her to the ground with such violence that her left thumb was dislocated, and her hip, head and shoulder bruised. She further alleges that she was 51 years old, and in good health; a nurse by profession and doing a good business. She claims that since then she has been unable to attend to business or to earn a living for herself and children; and that she is thereby injured in the sum of $2500. Also, that she is "otherwise greatly injured," to the size of $5000. She therefore prays judgment for $7500 and costs.

THE ANARCHISTS.

A Resident of Los Angeles Who Knows Them Talks.

Much interest is felt in the fate of the condemned Chicago Anarchists, who are to hang today, and everything about them is eagerly read and commented on. A TIMES man yesterday met a gentleman now residing in this city who is well acquainted with three of the men—Parsons, Fielden and Spies—and had an interesting chat about them.

"Yes," he said, "I have known Parsons, Fielden and Spies for several years. In 1883 I met Parsons, who was secretary of the old State Socialistic Labor party, which only advocated governmental control of railroads, telegraphs, and such other public institutions as could be monopolized. Shortly after the International Working People's Association was organized, with a membership of some ten or twelve. The necessity for an organ being apparent, Spies and Parsons were appointed a committee on the subject, the result of which was the paper called the Alarm. Matters progressed smoothly for a while, when Tucker's school of Anarchy was taken up and advocated until the International Association broke up. Spies turned Communist, and the balance of the party associated themselves with the regular German Anarchist branch. As a matter of fact, neither Parsons nor Spies ever advocated force until the trouble in the Lamont and Joliet quarries, when a number of innocent women were shot down by the militia on the streets. They believed that the military forces were used by the capitalistic element for the oppression of the working people, but only then advocated force to the extent of repressing and controlling this power. Spies and Parsons, I know, started on their career as Socialists, and did not become Anarchists, or Communists, until some years after. Personally, Parsons is a brave man, and his whole heart was given to what he considered a good cause. He has been prominently identified with labor organizations ever since he was a boy, and always took a deep interest in everything in any way affecting labor. Parsons and Spies are both printers, and are well educated, intelligent men. They always dressed well, and, if they were not associated as they are, might be called society men. Fielden is their direct opposite. He a large man, good tempered, and was a teamster before he became identified with the Anarchist party. As to Parsons' wife, there is a general misunderstanding about her in the minds of the public. The Chicago papers say she is a negress, but she is not. She is half breed, Mexican and Indian, and a remarkably well informed woman, of good appearance and a fine speaker. I was not in Chicago when the Haymarket riot occurred, having left just one week before. I suppose they deserve death; nevertheless I am sorry for them. They went too far, and of course must pay the penalty for their crimes.

THE FREEHOLDERS.

Councilman Frankenfield Expresses His Views.

The suggested combination ticket for the election of the fifteen freeholders who are to be selected by the people of Los Angeles to draft the new city charter, is receiving the approbation of almost every prominent citizen in town irrespective of party, and THE TIMES is thanked for having first brought the matter to light. There is no doubt but what all the property owners of this city realize that the new charter must be so drawn as to cover not only the necessities of the city at the present time, but also those likely to arise in a very few years hence if the tremendous increase in the population continues.

A TIMES reporter met J. Frankenfield, chairman of the Republican City Central Committee, yesterday afternoon, and asked him what steps had been taken to bring the matter before the public. Mr. Frankenfield said:

"I am now looking for Major Burke, the chairman of the Democratic City Central Committee, and we will then arrange a joint meeting of both the committees, at which the fifteen men will be selected.

"What is your opinion of the scheme of putting such a ticket in the field?"

"Considering that I am one of the originators of it, I feel that it is a good idea and one that will be satisfactory to all parties. I read very carefully the interview with Maj. Burke as published in Tuesday morning's TIMES, and I can say I heartily coincide with the views therein expressed. The fact is plainly to be seen, that the drafting of a charter for a city is one of those things which above all others should be raised above the question of partisan bias, and in this instance particularly, there is every reason to believe that the work badly done will leave us worse off than we are at present."

"How will the work of drafting this charter be accomplished?"

"Well, in the first place, an election will be called by the municipal authorities. Then the people will vote on the names of the candidates who are to form this committee of fifteen. These candidates, to be eligable, must be freeholders and have had residence here five years or more. After the election, the committee elected have ninety days in which to complete their work, and the charter thus drafted by them is then submitted to the people, who will vote on its adoption or rejection. Before this election can be held, there must be published in two of the principal daily papers, the notice of the election for at least sixty days previous to the time it is held. After the people have passed on the charter, it is sent to the Legislature at Sacramento for its adoption or rejection."

"The reason, then, Mr. Frankenfield, for the proposition of an entirely non-partisan ticket is that the best men may be selected without regard to politics, so that the charter as drafted by them will carry the approbation of the Legislature?"

"Exactly, and without fail. The city is now in such a position that there are many conditions to be put in the draft which must go in if we want our city to continue in the lead. By selecting the men as we now propose, we will be able to get a committee composed of the ablest men in the city, and that is the class of men we need for the work."

Mr. Frankenfield then left

HELLO, CENTRAL!

A Mismanaged Service Smartly Reprimanded.

The Board of Trade yesterday ordered the following pointed communication sent to the manager of the Sunset Telephone-Telegraph Company:

Howard Keyser, Esq., Manager Sunset Telephone Company, Los Angeles, Cal.

—DEAR SIR: I am instructed by the directors of this Board of Trade to communicate with you, and to say, in the interests of our merchants and business men, who are, with but few exceptions, subscribers to your system, that it has been of late, and is now, fearfully and wonderfully operated.

So numerous and universal are the complaints becoming that it is well-nigh impossible, that you, as manager, are not to a certain extent acquainted with the great dissatisfaction that exists.

We are fully aware that a long time ago certain improvements were made by your company that were intented to enlarge the capacity of your office for work and to facilitate business. For a time it did probably well enough, but it is a self-evident fact that today the service your company is giving our people is far, very far, from being satisfactory.

If they were not paying you your own charges (which I will add were considered by very many far from reasonable) and agreeing to and submitting to all your requirements, it might possibly be out of place to complain, but as the opposite is the case, and they do pay your tariff and submit to your requirements they have the right to protest when their grievances are well founded, and ask of your company such improvements in the operative or mechanical departments, or both, of your office, as will give them good service for good pay.

It would seem that, cognizant as you must be of the inefficiency of the service your company is rendering your subscribers, that some effort would be made to remedy the evil, without having the matter formally brought to your attention; but as it appears to be necessary that the subject should be brought to the notice of your company in that way, the board has instructed me to address you.

We hope it is in your power to make such alterations as will improve the service, without referring to headquarters; if not, we desire that you lay the subject before the proper officials at your earliest convenience.

I remain, very respectfully,
(Signed) A. M. LAWRENCE, Sec'y.

DRAIN PIPE.

A New Machine Which Makes It Very Rapidly.

A TIMES reporter yesterday met at the Nadeau House A. R. Sauer, an old newspaper man and for a number of years business manager of the Omaha Bee. Mr. Sauer is visiting California to see the country and with a view to introducing a new invention which will fill a long felt want, it being no less than a sewer-pipe and drain-pipe machine which will revolutionize that industry wherever it is used. After some talk about irrigation and the necessity of economizing water, Mr. Sauer invited the reporter to go out and look at the machine, which has been put up and is in operation at the works of the Stearns Manufacturing Company, on Date and Chavez streets. Here they met Mr. Sherman, one of the inventors, who has charge of the machine and explained its workings. The machine is a marvel of simplicity, there being absolutely nothing to get out of order, and is so arranged that the whole work is controlled by one lever, which can be attended by a boy. It is very compact, takes up less than six feet square of space, is self-feeding and automatic in all its parts, and yet can turn out from 2500 to 3000 feet of sewer or drain pipe per day with three men, whereas by hand four men can turn out but 100 feet in the same length of time, making the cost less than half what it is at present. It makes any size pipe—from four to thirty inches—and requires only a four-horse-power engine to run it. The pipe is of concrete, sand and cement, and the uniformity of tamping makes the product superior to any that can be made by hand. A technical description of the machine would hardly do it justice, and nothing short of a personal inspection will enable a person to appreciate its good points. Mr. Sauer will probably organize a company here to handle his machine, and can be found at the Nadeau for a few days. An exhibition will be given at the Stearns works Monday afternoon, to which the public is invited. Both Mr. Sauer and Mr. Sherman will be on hand and will take pleasure in giving any information that may be wanted, as well as give a practical exhibition of the machine, which is the same that J. S. Edwards has been describing to his friends here.

RIALTO!

29,000 ACRES! QUEEN OF THE COLONIES!

We extend a cordial welcome to the crowds of Eastern visitors now thronging Southern California. Read carefully the following lectures.
Our subject is RIALTO.

FIRST LECTURE.

1. Location—RIALTO, which is synonymous with the Semi-tropic Land and Water Company, is a tract of 29,700 acres of unsurpassed orange, lemon and raisin land, situated on the mighty mesa or table land lying three miles west of San Bernardino. The main lines of the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe Railroads cross the entire tract from east to west.

A subsidy of $38,000 and a right of way for several miles has been offered to the SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA MOTOR ROAD COMPANY, and accepted by that company. The road will be built at once.

2. A great many citizens of San Bernardino are preparing to build their homes along this line through Rialto. Prominent among these will be the residence of ex-Gov. Merrill of Iowa, who has selected Rialto as his home. Other leading men are preparing to build in this Queen Colony.

3. The location, on a mighty table-land, overlooking San Bernardino, Colton, Redlands, Lugonia, Crafton, Highlands, North San Bernardino, Irvington and Riverside, cannot be surpassed. The view is an inspiration. The great Stewart Hotel in San Bernardino and the Rubidoux, now building at Riverside, are plainly visible. The grand amphitheater of mountains, beginning at San Jacinto on the southeast and ending with the Cucamonga range and "Old Baldy" on the northwest, is indescribable in its beauty.

Do not fail to stand upon this tract and look to the east and south. You will never forget the panorama of mountains, valleys, cities and villages.

This elevation not only gives a grand view, but provides complete immunity from frosts and guarantees an absolutely pure air.

What more do you want, ye home-seekers from the East? Name it and you will find it at RIALTO. J. A. MERRILL, Agent, San Bernardino.

SECOND ADDRESS.

1. WATER! WATER! WATER! WATER! This is what you want—plenty of it and pure. Lytle Creek is one of the largest bodies of water to be found in Southern California. It has a surface flow of more than 2000 inches and without question a much larger stream is flowing beneath the surface which only needs to be picked up.

2. Lytle Creek water is conveyed through iron pipes to each ten-acre tract, under fine pressure. Every property-holder can have a fountain and lawn. Every kind of tree and shrub, except the most tender and tropical plants, can be grown here. It will be a place of ideal homes in the near future. Water will do the business. No whisky allowed. A prohibitory clause goes into every deed.

THIRD LECTURE.

The prices of land at Rialto will not frighten you and the terms are very generous. Many eastern people are scared out of a year's growth on learning the prices asked for lands in Southern California. Why pay $500 to $1000 per acre when you can get choice lands from the Semi-Tropic Company at $200 per acre?

Ladies and gentlemen, you will thank us for calling your attention to Rialto if you will come and take a drive over it.

Great reductions from the schedule prices are made to those who improve their places. Many are now purchasing who get the reduced price.

For a full information call upon the company's agent at San Bernardino.

Manager San Bernardino Land Bureau.

Los Olivos, situated at the terminus of the Pacific Coast Railway, 80 miles from Port Harford, in the center the San Joaquin Valley and the Santa Fe.

Wednesday's Chronicle says:

"Something more than mere surmise has from the first characterised the rumors of the connection of the San Francisco and San Joaquin Valley Railroad with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé. The route of the proposed line is the only one of the projected roads that have been credited with having Atchison backing which makes direct connection with the Atlantic and Pacific. As surveyed, it extends from Antioch along the western side of the San Joaquin Valley, through Fresno and Tulare counties, and thence through a portion of Kern county to a connection with the Atlantic and Pacific, near Mojave. Engineers and surveyors have been in the field for nearly a year. The survey has practically been completed, and the line is now ready for grading and tracklaying. But little of this latter work has been done, operations having been confined to the Tejon pass, which it is proposed to hold against invasion by the Southern Pacific or other companies.

"I. R. Wilbur of this city, who has been prominently connected with the enterprise from the start, has been making an extended visit in the East in the interest of the scheme. It is known that he has held conferences with the Atchison officials, and that he has received instructions from them regarding the work to be done. In Chicago he met C. W. Smith, with whom he was closeted for several hours in the Atchison manager's office in the Rialto building. In St. Louis he conferred with H. L. Morrill, second vice-president and general manager of the Atchison's St. Louis and San Francisco line. To Mr. Morrill he stated, according to a gentleman who was present at the conference, that as soon as the bonds and mortgage of the new road were ready, 'they,' referring to President Strong and his associates, would let the San Francisco and San Joaquin managers have the money with which to begin operations. Then followed a long conversation about the prospects of the line, in which Mr. Wilbur explained the ease with which its construction would be prosecuted. He said that he could employ about 8000 men, beginning work at both the Antioch and Mojave ends of the line, and that the track could be graded along the smooth stretch of country in the San Joaquin Valley at the rate of a mile and a half a day.

"From these conferences, from which only this meager information can be gleaned, two deductions can be made, either one of which may be correct. Either Mr. Wilbur has gone East for the sake of selling out his right of way to the Atchison or any other company that might wish to purchase them, or he has gone for the purpose of getting instructions relative to the immediate beginning of work on the proposed road, which has been ordered to be surveyed for the Atchison company. The latter is the most reasonable of the two conjectures, as there is other proof of the connection of the new line with the Atchison.

"Messrs. Wilbur, Paige, Paulsell and the other members of the San Joaquin Valley Company have from the first preserved the closest secrecy regarding the operations of their line and its connection with other companies, and the repeated efforts of Chronicle reporters to get them to loosen their tongues regarding the matter have been without avail.

"There is a rumor afloat that Mr. Wilbur and his associates will begin to break ground at Antioch by December 1st. Should this be done, and a large force of men put at work at both ends of the line, the Atchison could be running its trains in Antioch in less than two years."

A FALSE INTERVIEW.

An alleged interview with F. A. Riordan, secretary of the Ayer Lumber Company at Flagstaff, Ariz., printed in an evening sheet, makes that gentleman utter some remarkable nonsense, which it is perfectly safe to say he never did utter. The statement, for instance, that "the Mineral Belt Railroad never had any trouble with its employés," and that "everything is now running smoothly," is entirely false. Nor did Mr. Riordan say that "the Mineral Belt Railroad runs from Flagstaff to Globe City, and business is quite lively at Globe." The road starts from Flagstaff and runs out about fifteen miles to—nowhere; and Globe City is over 100 miles away in a straight line. Finally, it is palpable that Mr. Riordan did not say that a railroad is now building from Flagstaff to the Grand Cañon. Such a road has been talked of, but there is not a lick of work done on it.

Nova Scotians.

On the opening of Judge Cheney's court yesterday morning, on motion of Mr. Hardie, the Hon. I. D. McLeod and William A. Dickson were admitted to the bar of this county. Mr. McLeod was a leader of the Nova Scotia Government until recently, when he resigned and came West on account of throat trouble. Mr. Dickson is also from Nova Scotia, where he practiced law for the past nine years. There are now in business in this city upward of twenty men from Picton, N. S., and nearly 200 residents of this county from Nova Scotia. Messrs. McLeod & Dickson open a law office in this city.

The History of Music.

The course of six illustrated lectures on the history of music, from the remote ages to modern times, by the eminent musician, William Piutti, begins at the concert hall of Bartlett Bros. & Clark, 18 West First street, this evening. The lecturer, who is a master of his subject as well as of his art, will be assisted by the best vocal and instrumental soloists here, and the lectures will be a rare treat to the musically-wise. The dates for the remaining lectures are as follows: November 14th, 18th; December 2d, 5th, 9thth.

Where Violins Are Made.
[Pittsburgh Dispatch.]

In Markneukirchen, with its surrounding villages, Klingenthal, Fleissen, Rohrbach and Graslitz, in Saxony, are about 15,000 people who do nothing else day after day but make violins. The inhabitants, from the little urchin to the old gray-headed man, the small girl and the old grandmother, all are engaged in making some parts of a fiddle. A good instrument consists of sixty-two different pieces. The older men make the finger-board from ebony and the stringholder of the screws. The small boys make themselves useful by looking after the glue-pot. A man with strong, steady hands and a clear eye puts the different pieces together, and this is the most difficult task of all. The women generally occupy themselves as polishers. This requires long practice, and a family that has a daughter who is a good polisher is considered fortunate. Even a young man, when he goes a-wooing, inquires whether the young girl is a good polisher, and if she is, it certainly will increase his affection for her at least twofold. The polishing takes a good deal of time, some of the best violins being twenty and even thirty times polished. Every family has its peculiar style of polishing, and they never vary from that. There is one that makes nothing but a deep wine color, another a citron color, yet another an orange color, and so on.

French Courtships.

Flirtation is not a French pastime, says Max O'Rell. A few married women may indulge in it, but girls, whatever may be said to the contrary, never do. A woman who flirted would pass in Paris for giddy, not to say fast; she knows her countrymen too well for that. She is aware when she coquets with them what she is exposing herself to. If French girls felt inclined for a little flirtation how could they indulge in it? Good heavens! What would her mother and father say if they saw her taking a walk by herself during the day—if it came to their knowledge that a young man had actually dared to whisper words of love into her ear before he had laid bare his heart and made a clear statement of his finances to them in the first place? Even when he has obtained the consent of the parents and his visits to the house where his fiancée resides are permitted, the young couple are not allowed to see each other even for a moment without the presence of a third party, and the little intimacies and endearments which in America are deemed harmless, are in France rigorously banished and forbidden. The pleasant operation familiar to English lovers by the term of "spooning" is absolutely unknown to courtship as practiced in France.

Prose and Poetry at Funerals.
[Woman's News.]

They had the poor woman in a $50 coffin. The beautiful bunch of white roses in the one hand that was exposed did not conceal the marks of toil on her fingers, and the calloused places, the distended joints, and the rough skin. Her iron-gray hair was neatly brushed down on the sides of her wrinkled forehead, and the black silk gown, folded so gracefully about her, was full of luster, new and evidently expensive. There were ten hacks for friends of the family, and the hearse was driven by a man in livery, and eight costly plumes on top. "How natural she looked, and what a lovely funeral," said a woman who had known the family.

"How unnatural she looked, and what an inhuman thing that funeral was," said a male cynic who accompanied her.

"Why?"

"Because there was a good woman, a hard-working wife and mother, who never had a ride in a hack, whose fingers never pressed a flower, and never wore silk. She didn't have any time and didn't have money. Now look at her. Flowers rare and sweet in her dead hands, lots of carriages following her hearse, and a costly shroud for a body which in life was deemed none two good for a 20-cent worsted."

Rope He Will Remember.
[Chicago Tribune.]

In some parts of the West and South—where he delivered no speeches—Mr. Cleveland made a good impresssion during his trip. We trust he will remember that he can dissipate it all by a ten-column message to Congress.

"After Dark."

Our poet sat down, and with the aid of a freckled tamale, a glass of beer and a pretzel, he evolved the following massive poem:

Oh, come to the show tonight,
Oh, come to the show tonight—
To the show, to the show, to the show,
To the show, to the show, to the show,
Oh, come to the show tonight.

He sank away in a dead faint after this tremendous effort as an Anarchist from Chicago whispered in his ear: "Come, dynamite with me." But today we give away tickets for the performances at the Pavilion next week free. It opens Monday night in After Dark by the Webster-Brady Company. One ticket, good for any performance and to any part of the house, given away with every $2-purchase. Headquarters Boot and Shoe House, 209 North Main street.

LA PRESA!

The Beautiful Swiss Village on Lake Como

BEING REPRODUCED IN SAN DIEGO.

The most novel thing yet undertaken in the development of this southern country is now being done at LA PRESA, nine miles from San Diego. The plan is to reproduce in that delightful spot the counterpart of the celebrated Swiss village on Lake Como, in Northern Italy. To this end a railroad is being built to the place, and a fine modern hotel is to be erected at once. The situation is most delightful; far enough removed from the sea to escape rough winds, yet near enough to be always cool. With pure water, fine scenery, and the best of soil, LA PRESA is just the place to invest for a quick turn with big profits. LA PRESA is sure to grow rapidly, as it has all the elements to attract a select class of settlers.

Lots are Sold for the Low Price of $100 to $125 Each.

"The Times" has a larger circulation than any other newspaper published in Southern California.

PROHIBITION has been badly beaten in Oregon.

DAKOTA has voted in favor of dividing the Territory.

MR. LINGG had a set-to with his esteemed contemporary, Mr. Dynamite, and got the worst of it.

THE Republican triumph in Ohio—its increased majority—stiffens John Sherman's political backbone.

THE deed of Anarchist Lingg was terrible—yea, horrible. It was the act of a wild beast—one that conveys no thrill of admiration for its perpetrator, but one that startles the mind and shocks the soul.

THE millennium has put in its appearance in Detroit. That city has organized a society of men which numbers over 1000, who have taken the pledge never, under any circumstances, to indulge in the use of profane language.

A CIPHER typographically knocked out of a paragraph in yesterday's TIMES relative to the result of the contest for the Superior Judgeship in Chicago, between Capt. Black, the Anarchist attorney, and Judge Gary, before whom the Anarchists were tried, made it appear that Black received the greatest number of votes. The reverse was the fact, the vote being: Black, 5118; Gary, 38,009.

ONE of the Chicago Tribune correspondent's slanders on Los Angeles reappears in the Omaha Bee, with agravated exaggerations, for where in the original letter the figures $3500 were used to illustrate the cost of a certain class of residences in this city, in the Omaha reprint the sum is raised to $35000. But such little discrepancies as this are of no consequence to these complaisant liars.

Among the political possibilities of next year is a Democratic majority in Kansas. Kansas as a Democratic State in a Presidential election would be something novel, but entirely pleasant to think of.—[Florida Weekly Times.

Jesso. But when that novelty vaporizes even as "pleasant thought," there will be no yellow fever in Florida.

THE Kansas City Star, a thoroughgoing Cleveland organ, gives utterance to the following wail, which will doubtless be indorsed by many of its Democratic brethren:

Among the people who will most sincerely regret the sensational conduct of Jeff Davis and the ultra utterances of ex-Minister to Mexico Henry Jackson at Macon, Ga., are those who condemn the "bloody shirt" agitators at the North. The fool-killer has neglected the country lately, both North and South.

What an awful decimation in the ranks of the Democracy there would be if the "fool-killer" should only get in his work.

WHEN, from time to time, the Sacramento editors experience a brief interval of relief from shakes and ague, and the hollowed harpoons of gallinipper mosquitos, they hunt up an "interview" subject. The Record-Union recently pounced on a Quaker, and in type he is made to say:

"I don't see what is to become of all the people who are rushing down toward Los Angeles. It is all right enough for wealthy people, but no others can buy land there at the enormous prices asked. I have been looking at land around here and find prices not more than a quarter of Los Angeles rates. And it is better land, too, and what finer climate could one desire? The immigrants who are coming here would very few of them pass your city if they knew of your resources. A large party of my friends are coming to California next January. They are enthusiastic for Southern California, but I will tell them some things that they don't dream of before they make their choice."

The Record-Union adds: "Mr. Cope is a retired manufacturer." There is no doubt in the world that Mr. Cope is a manufacturer. The fun he had with the Record-Union proves that. It also proves that Mr. C. has not yet retired from business.

The Elections.

With the exception of the unlooked-for inflation of the Prohibition vote in New York, and the wholesale shrinkage of Henry George's strength, Tuesday's elections resulted as they were expected to result. The Democratic victory in New York is not a very glittering success. Fifteen thousand plurality in a State that gave Cleveland for Governor 195,000 majority constitutes what might be termed a very "on-sartin victory." Ohio holds up her Republican end with an increased majority for Foraker, while Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Rhode Island and New Jersey show Republican gains.

Fit Upon Such an Aid-de-Camp.

The foolish and reckless Tribune says:

It will be a great disappointment to hundred of his friends and supporters in this city that Gov. Waterman has been compelled to decline, for the present, the public reception and banquet that was fully prepared for him, and which it was hoped might take place here before his return to the Capital. He appreciated very highly the efforts that have been put forth to entertain him splendidly, and it was with deep regret that he was, at the last hour, under the necessity of writing to Mayor Workman that he must postpone the pleasure in store for him to a future time.

We are beginning to feel real sympathy for Gov. Waterman. Some lover of humanity should save him from his friends(?). Where was the "able and shrewd" aid-de-camp, "the right man for the right place," that he permitted the above tissue of bald-headed falsehood to go forth? We will do the Governor the service to set him right before the people in the matter above treated. We will endeavor to lift him out of the hole into which his friends (?) have poked him, and we will relieve him of the imputation of having perpetrated the needless, vapid and foolish falsehood which the Trombone's article saddles upon him.

No preparation was made for a banquet. No human being knew of any such preparation being made. The state of affairs was fully known to the Executive. The Governor did not write to Mayor Workman "at the last moment." Mayor Workman received no communication on the subject of "reception and banquet." On the contrary, the Mayor—who is ever ready to do honor to the State's executive head—was informed by a member of the Reception Committee, while the Governor was still in San Diego, that the whole business was off. In fact, neither the Mayor, nor the secretary of the Republican State Central Committee, who resides here, knew of Gov. Waterman's presence in this city until they saw a notice of his departure in THE TIMES. These are the perpendicular, cold-blooded, brutal and merciless facts.

The Best Policy.

When medium-sized and ordinarily-furnished rooms are offered for rent at the rate of $35 to $40 per month it is time to call a halt. Many people in Los Angeles, in the heart of town, and some even on the more retired streets, are asking such prices, and in many cases getting it, too. The demand for rooms is very great, but that is no reason why people should resort to extortion. People are coming in upon us in large numbers, many of them with ample means, and many others, who will prove most desirable citizens, with less money at their disposal. Large numbers are coming with the intention of locating here. But before this is done they want temporary accommodations and time for looking about them previous to investing. For such accommodations they cannot afford to pay exorbitant prices. Such welcome discourages them at the outset. The tendency is to drive them away. Los Angeles cannot afford to do this. Her people should be content, in the midst of their prosperity, with reasonable charges. The Shylocks in our midst should be frowned upon. They are the worst foes that we have to the prosperity of the city.

The fact that people come here with plenty of money will not justify a bleeding process on the part of the citizens here. It is wrong, it is injudicious and it should be stopped.

Let us be reasonable, and let those who have rooms to place at the disposal of the incoming multitude be content with a fair remuneration for the same. In this way each one will contribute his or her share toward the continued growth of the city. It will ultimately result in greater benefit to us both individually and collectively than will the opposite course. Honesty and fair dealing in all things is always the best policy. Let it be ours.

Our Steady Growth.

People are pouring into California every day and from every direction. We speak, not of the 100,000 persons now booked with excursion managers, but of the steady, every-day immigration. That this immigration is not sporadic or fitful, but that it is normal and continuous, is shown by the immigration statistics.

We have received, overland, during the past three months, something over 17,000, and, during the same period we have received by sea 5564 including, of course, Chinese and Japs. The total arrivals by sea from all points during the first nine months of the present calendar year were 20,037, of which number 12,461 were from China and Japan, and the departures by sea during the same period numbered 11,830, China and Japan taking 5162. In the same nine months there arrived overland 45,954 persons, and departed 34,049. Totals by sea and overland for the nine months: Arrivals, 65,991; departures, 45,349, against 77,352 arrivals and 61,822 departures during the first nine months of 1886. The net gain for the State this year, in round numbers, is 20,000, against 15,500 last year.

Continue to Grow Fruit.

Santa Barbara has some men who are going steadily on in the work of fruit raising. That industry is good enough for them. They see in it grand results for the future, and have more interest in it than in the tumultuous boom. Among these is Mr. Elwood Cooper, the prince of olive growers on this coast. He has not cut down his great orchards to make room for town lots, and he will ship this season, among other productions, thirty tons of walnuts, and will receive a good price for them. Mr. Eugene Knapp of that section has shipped twenty-five tons. The apple and pear crop of Santa Barbara county has been very abundant, more than enough for the home market. These industries in the future of California will be better than gold mines. In the excitement of the real-estate business Southern California will make a great mistake if she lets her fruit industries languish. It is to be hoped that it will not be done.

A Capital City Fakir.

The following alluring announcement, emanating from the National Capital, has reached this office by the hand of the citizen who received it:

No. 808 BOUNDARY STREET, N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30, 1887.

SIR: I have, after many years' labour and investigation, invented an ARTICLE and discovered a PLAN, which when combined into a Stock Company, will form a large Manufacturing and extensive Transportation ENTERPRISE for permanent, profitable and large investments, and capable of almost unlimited extension, and for magnitude, profits and utility, will become second to no other corporation extant.

It will save to all manufacturing and commercial countries millions of dollars worth of lumber annually—which are now lost—and will also furnish, at greatly reduced COST, to the People, a CAREFUL and more satisfactory EXPRESS transportation—these improvements are greatly needed all over the World. It is notorious, that the present transportation facilities are executed on the don't care, smash-up, and destructive plan everywhere. And it is almost equally known that timber is becoming scarcer yearly. To prevent its destruction, is a great National and Individual interest and object.

I will be pleased to mail you a PAMPHLET, showing in detail this ENTERPRISE, if you will write me your wish to read and answer it—it will not take more than 25 or 30 minutes of your time to do so.

After you have read the Pamphlet, and given it due consideration, perhaps you will agree with me, that there is more clear money in this enterprise, than in the Steam, or the Telegraph, or the Telephone, or almost any other one business.

The PAMPHLET is not a Public advertisement—but a personal, confidential business communication, to be re-mailed if not wanted its thus confined circulation and object. You will understand when you read it. I await your pleasure.

Respectfully yours, HENRY JOHNSON.

Mr. Johnson is evidently a great public benefactor, whom it would be base ingratitude to call a fakir. He should not suffer his light to be confined under a bushel, but advertise in the daily papers that he has just got in from Utopia with the millennium loaded on a freight train, and invite the populace to walk up to the depot and help themselves.

P. S. If Mr. Johnson wants to hire an "organ," we cordially recommend him to the Los Angeles Tribune. It is out of a job.

On the Other Side and Here.

Snow has already fallen in many of the States to the eastward, and winter has settled down in good earnest upon that portion of the country embraced in the great Northwest, the Central, Middle and Eastern States. The thermometer has taken to sudden and awful plunges that brings a chill to the very marrow, and tends to make the shivering mortals of the winter sections of the country turn their gaze with fresh longing toward this semi-tropical portion of the Golden State. The average eastern citizen has made up his mind that there is no use in being snowed in and snowed under for six months of the year, and scorched and melted the other six, when a country is available where he can escape all this discomfort by a simple journey across the continent. So large numbers of people at the East are looking about eagerly for purchasers for their farms and merchandise, and the advance guard for the season of this great army is already putting in an appearance among us and heartily rejoicing at their escape. And we have room for them all; for the investment of their capital; for the upbuilding of new industries, for larger agricultural and commercial enterprise; for thousands more of small farms, and tens of thousands of happy homes. Let them come.

Prosecuting "Mr." Morrow.

Robert Morrow of San Francisco, stock sharp, city railroad director, political wire-worker, jury-fixer and general boodler, has found a congenial spirit and some natural sympathy in the Spring-street bucket shop.

Morrow has applied to the San Francisco courts for a change of venue. In discussing this application the editor of the Trombone treats his brother boodler with unctuous consideration, always referring to him as "Mr." Morrow. Following are some examples:

"Mr. Morrow, who was recently tried for bribing jurors."

"Mr. Morrow's friends would probably admit as much."

"Mr. Morrow's attorney, it is understood, will apply for a change of venue."

"And now the Examiner, thinking the case may be sent into Los Angeles county, would like the newspapers in this city to unite for once and take up pens against the man whom the Hearsts hate, against Mr. Morrow."

"For one paper we decline to be enlisted at this early day in that work."

"A fellow (boodler) feeling makes us wondrous kind."

The Doomed Anarchists.

Today seals the fate of the Anarchists. They were originally eight in number, seven of whom were sentenced to death. Neebe was sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, where he now is. The death sentences of Fielden and Scwab have been commuted to imprisonment for life. Lingg is dead, having committed suicide. The remainder, Engel, Fischer, Spies and Parsons, must today make atonement upon the gallows. There is no denying the fact that the whole country demands the satisfaction of justice in the death of those men.

Pillow Fights for Grown-Up Children.

[Boston Herald.]

A novel custom has been introduced to the attention of the lame and the lazy. It is an enormous ball, made of some silken art fabric, filled with down, and the weary head only temporarily compresses it. Such cushions would make excellent projectiles in those demonstrative disagreements which are said to occur sometimes in the best regulated establishments.

Irony's Point Sharpened by Time.

[Boston Courier.]

"Women cannot be satirical," says a writer, "any more than they can be humorous." So? How is it when a man, after courting a girl for seven years, proposes she says: "Oh, George, this is so sudden!"

A Big Mouth That Needs Rest.

[Omaha Herald.]

Train's efforts should be directed toward the inauguration of ten years' more silence. The best use Train can make of a year is to jam as much silence into it as possible.

Gen. Walter Turnbull and family are at present in Berlin. Ever since their arrival in that city Miss Ruth Turnbull has been very ill with a severe attack of pleuro-pneumonia, in consequence of which the General will not be able to return to San Francisco as soon as he expected.

Ex-Mayor A. J. Bryant of San Francisco, who has been confined to his room for the past month by sickness, is sufficiently recovered to undertake a journey to his ranch in Fresno, where he expects to remain for a month or so in hopes that the country air and retirement from active city business will restore him to his usual health.

H. C. Dinkens, general agent of the St. Louis and San Francisco, has returned to the Bay City from the East. Mr. Dinkens went East with the Grand Army excursion, and has since taken an extended tour throughout the Southern States, returning via Los Angeles. The passenger travel into the southern portion of the State, he says, exceeds all belief.

SUMMARY OF RAILROAD NEWS.

Progress of Railroad Building in Southern California.

Graders are at work between Oceanside and Escondido. Some fifteen miles of roadbed is already completed.

The force of graders now at work on the San Diego Street Railway line, at Twenty-second street, is to be largely increased.

Delayed trains are reported every day. The overland travel is assuming enormous proportions, and delays are almost inevitable.

The Southern Pacific is moving in the Santa Ana Valley and in San Diego county. Important developments are looked for shortly.

The Santa Fé has now reached San Juan, and the graders are forty miles beyond. Ground was broken this week and teams are now at work on the Anaheim and Los Angeles road.

J. P. Sherwood and Dr. L. M. Patter, who built the St. Louis, Kansas City and Colorado Railroad between St. Louis and Kansas City, now owned by the Santa Fé Company, are now visiting California.

R. P. Morgan and William L. Elseffer, the two engineers employed by the Pacific Railroad Commission to examine the condition and material of the roads of the Union and Central Pacific, have completed their report.

The Southern Pacific is now selling through tickets from Liverpool to San Diego for $64 25, passengers coming by way of Newport News, El Paso and New Orleans. From San Diego to Liverpool by the same route, the price is $75 85.

Many of the Santa Fé extensions in Southern California are delayed for want of material. The grading in many places is finished and the roadbed ready for the ties and rails. Ten thousand tons of rails are now on the way from Europe for the Santa Fé.

On Sunday, November 13th, the Southern Pacific will inaugurate its first-class excursions, making quick time between San Francisco and New York city. The trip will be made in five days, and will be by way of the Union and Central Pacific, Northwestern, Michigan Central, New York Central and Hudson River. For unlimited tickets the price will be $95.30, limited, $70. Only first-class and palace coaches will be run on these trains.

Nipped in the Bud.

It was reported last night that a well-known young man of this city tried to elope with a young girl by the 7:30 p.m. north-bound express. His wife got wind of the matter and got to the depot herself in time to stop the proposed elopmement, and to make it decidedly warm for her recreant spouse.

Congregational Social.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor give their regular monthly social entertainment this evening at the First Congregational Church, corner of Third and Hill streets. All are invited.

Set for Trial.

The trial of F. P. Weeks, Justice of the Peace at San Pedro, indicted by the Grand Jury for embezzlement, is set for the 24th of this month before Judge Cheney.

Prolonged Mourning.

Women are so apt to prolong their grief for the death of a near relative as for some sudden misfortune, says a writer in the Boston Budget. For a while your friends and acquaintances will feel with you, and would help you, if they could. They will comfort you, drop a tear with you, and listen to all your moaning for once. But, if you keep on, they will soon turn away. They weary of a grief that lasts, of woe that is unending. They expect you to get over your trouble again, to have your broken heart mended so that the crack cannot be seen. You can never, never really be yourself, if your heart is actually broken; and people live for years who have that happen them; but, unless you wish to be shunned by those who have loved you best, you must pretend to have gotten over your grief. You must force smiles, and pretend to be interested in things, and say nothing of the haunting thought forever in your heart. You must take your skeleton and shut it into a closet, and only open the door on dark nights, when no one can possibly call. Then you will know it for what it is—the dead bones of a warm and living joy—but, at least, no one else will.

A Process Requiring Time.

[Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.]

Mrs. Squildig (ready to go out): Why, what a time you have been. You said you were only going upstairs to write a short note, and here I've been waiting for you half an hour.

Mr. Squildig: Couldn't come any sooner, dear. The only thing I could find to write with was my fountain pen.

THE ANARCHISTS.

Lingg Commits Suicide in His Cell.

The Desperate Man Ends His Life With Dynamite.

Gov. Oglesby Commutes the Sentences of Fielden and Schwab.

The Remainder of the Doomed Men to Hang Today—Frantic Farewells with Their Wives—Nina Van Zandt Creates a Scene—Closing Scenes.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.

CHICAGO Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Louis Lingg, the bomb-maker, has committed suicide with a fulminating cartridge while in his cell in the County Jail. How he secured the weapon with which the deed was committed is a mystery, as his cell and clothing were again thoroughly searched yesterday, and to all appearances the guards that sat in front of the cell have watched him every minute. Lingg has always been regarded as the most desperate Anarchist of the lot. It was he who manufactured the bombs for the Haymarket riot, and in whose cell the bombs were found last Sunday. When the jailer made an examination of this cell, on the floor he found the shell of a fulminating cap. The Sheriff said there had undoubtedly been dynamite in it.

HOW THE GHASTLY DEED WAS DONE.

It is learned that Lingg ended his life by means of a fulminating cap. He held the cap in his mouth and lit it with a candle, which was burning in the cell. The explosion was the first warning the jail people had. The guard seeing him with the candle in his hand supposed he was lighting a cigar. From the effects of the explosion half his head was torn away. Immediately after the explosion, Deputy O'Neill rushed into Lingg's cell, which was completely enveloped in smoke. There he found the young Anarchist lying on his back with great holes in his head, from which blood flowed in torrents. He was at once carried into the jail office and placed on a table. He was still breathing faintly, and while Dr. Gray was examining him he coughed slightly and blood poured again from his terrible wounds and from his mouth and nose. The physician said the man could only live an hour or so at most and he expected his death at any moment.

A FEARFUL EXPLOSION.

The supposition that the man put the shell in his mouth and deliberately applied candle flame is undoubtedly correct. The explosion was terrific. It startled the officials, who thought it was a bomb, as the noise was so great. The shell was so small as to allow smuggling it into the jail without trouble. At 10:15 Dr. Gray, after further examination, found that the tissue of the throat, neck and front of the jaw had been torn away. He administered stimulants, but failed to arouse the man. Grinnell said that in case he lived until tomorrow a stay of execution for him at least would doubtless be granted. The theory of the Sheriff's office is that there is a traitor among the death watch who gave him dynamite and the cap.

The scene in Lingg's cell after the explosion was ghastly. Teeth, bits of jaw bone, shreds of flesh and blood were scattered all over the narrow compartment. The Sheriff says Lingg was stripped and carefully searched yesterday. The clothing of the other Anarchists was changed today. Friends of the others say they will redouble their efforts in behalf of the condemned men.

CAPT. BLACK OVERCOME.

Capt. Black came to the jail shortly after 1 o'clock. He went to the room where the doctors were working with Lingg.

"Poor fellow; poor fellow!" he said. "Can he recognize me?"

Lingg opened his eyes, looked steadily at the Captain and nodded his head. The rags and strings of flesh that hung to his face waved to and fro, and the Captain was almost overcome and left the room.

He called Dr. Prengar and said: "Doctor, don't you think a consultation of physicians ought to be held as to whether this man ought to be hung?"

"Impossible to hang him," said the Doctor, "Who ever heard of hanging a wounded man? No, sir; it must not be," the surgeon said as he returned to his grim task.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT.

The news of Lingg's dreadful deed created the most profound excitement at the Sheriff's office. Deputies crowded together to compare notes, and then separated to spread the report and forwarding intelligence or holding themselves in readiness for what might occur. A number of people of all discriptions crowded into the office eagerly inquiring as to the particulars of the deed. The news of Lingg's deed spread through the city like a flash, and everyone is discussing it. Now that the bomb-maker has attempted his life, friends of the other Anarchists will redouble their efforts in behalf of the condemned men.

THE FATAL CAP.

The agent which had served Lingg to accomplish this morning's work was a small fulminating cap a little over an inch long. It had been filled with fulminate of mercury, and a small fuse, which is usually attached to these instruments of death, had been touched off by Lingg at the time the reporter thought he was lighting a cigar. When Lingg committed the deed he was lying on his face on his cot. After the affair, when his cell was searched, another candle was found. On the top of it, partly concealed by ends of wick, a second fulminating cap was found, so it is supposed that Lingg's attempted suicide was committed by a cap similar to the one in the hidden candles. The jailer said the caps must have been put in by Lingg himself.

LINGG'S DEATH.

Louis Lingg died at 2:55 o'clock this afternoon. He presented a most horrible sight. All the lower part of his jaw was completely torn off, and his thick auburn hair was matted with blood. The cheeks were torn out and hung down in jagged pieces on his neck. The teeth were knocked out and the gums torn away, and a small stump of tongue appeared protruding from the mangled throat.

LINGG'S FAREWELL ADDRESS.

All day yesterday it was thought Lingg acted differently from usual. Tuesday night he gave out his "Farewell Address," which was written for the Alarm, Parsons' old paper. In it he recites at length his grievances, and closed as follows: "Now, with a last and earnest farewell, my friends and comrades, and with final wishes for their prosperity, I close with a view of certainty that I shall never have a chance of seeing you again. My beloved comrades, with earnest and hearty wishes for your future success is life, your comrade, Hoch Die Anarchie. LOUIS LINGG."

PREPARING FOR THE INQUEST.

Coroner Hertz impaneled a jury late this afternoon, consisting of merchants doing business within a few blocks of the jail. After viewing the corpse of Lingg, which lay in the bath room at the jail, the jury adjourned until next Wednesday.

MERCY FOR TWO.

Gov. Oglesby Commutes the Sentences of Two of the Anarchists.

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.), Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Gov. Oglesby today commuted the sentences of Fielden and Schwab to life imprisonment.

THE GOVERNOR'S DECISION.

The following is the Governor's decision in full in the Anarchists' case:

STATE OF ILLINOIS, EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 10, 1887.

On the 20th day of August, 1886, in the Cook County Criminal Court, August Spies, Albert R. Parsons, Samuel Fielden, Michael Schwab, Adolph Fischer, George Engel and Louis Lingg were found guilty by verdict of the jury and afterward sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Mathias J. Degan. Their cases now come before me by petition of defendants for consideration as Governor of the State. If the letters of Albert Parsons, Adolph Fischer, George Engel and Louis Lingg, demanding "unconditional release," or, as they express it, "liberty or death," and protesting in the strongest language against mercy or commutation of the sentence pronounced against them can be considered as petitions, pardon, could it be granted, which might imply any guilt, whether on the part of either of them, would not be such a vindication as they demand, and executive intervention upon the grounds insisted upon by the four above-named persons could in no proper sense be deemed an exercise of the constitutional power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons unless based upon a belief, on my part, of their entire innocence of the crime of which they stand convicted. Careful consideration of the evidence in the record of the trial of the parties, as well as of all alleged and claimed for them outside of the record, has failed to produce upon my mind any impression tending to impeach the verdict of the jury or the judgment of the trial court, or of the Supreme Court, affirming the guilt of all these parties.

MERCY FOR TWO.

Satisfied, therefore, as I am, of their guilt, I am precluded from considering the question of the commutation of sentences of A. R. Parson, Adolph Fischer, George Engel and Louis Linng to imprisonment in the penitentiary, as they emphatically declare they will not accept such commutation. Samuel Fielden, Michael Schwab and August Spies unite in a petition for "executive clemency." Fielden and Schwab in addition present separate and supplementary petitions for commutation of their sentences. While, as said above, I am satisfied of the guilt of all the parties as found by the verdict of the jury, which was sustained by the judgment of the courts, a most careful consideration of the whole subject leads me to the conclusion that the sentence of the law as to Samuel Fielden and Michael Schwab may be modified as to each of them in the interest of humanity and without doing violence to public justice. And as to said Samuel Fielden and Michael Schwab, the sentence is commuted to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life.

THE REST MUST HANG.

As to all the above named defendants, I do not feel justified in interfering with the sentence of the court. While I would gladly have come to a different conclusion in regard to the sentence of the defendants August Spies, Adolph Fischer, George Engel, Albert R. Parsons and Louis Lingg, I regret to say that under a solemn sense of the obligations of my office, I have been unable to do so. (Signed)

RICHARD J. OGLESBY, Governor.

PARTING INTERVIEWS.

Sad Scenes at the Jail—Nina Van Zandt's Last Visit.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10—[By the Associated Press.] When the news that the Governor had commuted the sentence of Fielden and Schwab was received at the jail there was an extraordinary scene of activity. The news was sent to all the relations of the condemned men and in a short time they began to arrive at the jail. First of the women to come was Mrs. Schwab. Soon after, Schwab was brought from his cell to the main office. His wife quickly advanced to him and throwing her arms about his neck burst into tears. Schwab returned the embrace in a calm manner and soon the two were chatting quietly together.

After this Spies and Fischer were brought from their cells and taken to the jail library. Engel was brought to the private office of Mr. Folz. This was done for the purpose of allowing the relatives to TAKE THEIR LAST INTERVIEWS.

The first one of the women to arrive after Mrs. Schwab was Miss Engel, daughter of the condemned Anarchist. When the two met in the private office there was an outburst of grief which it is impossible to describe. Father and daughter clung to each other and sobbed convulsively. Their conversation was in German, and listened to only by Deputy Oleson.

MRS SPIES AND MRS. FISCHER.

Then came Mrs. Spies, the mother of August. She had been waiting outside for an hour and a half. Her sobs could be heard through the corridors of the building. She did not stay long in the library with her son, and on her exit from the jail Mrs. Fischer was admitted. She went into the library and her lamentations were heard above the tramp of the deputies who swarm about the place.

NINA VAN ZANDT'S VISIT.

But the crowning scene of all was the visit of Nina Van Zandt, the proxy wife of Spies. She was conducted to the library by Deputy Oleson. As she walked through the main office she betrayed no emotion. The moment af which she saw Auguse, however, completely changed her demeanor. There was a look, then a gasp, and in a trice the lovers were in each other's arms. A bevy of curious reporters and officers crowded up to the door of the library, but it was quickly shut by a deputy. The interview between the prisoner and his faithful devoted lasted nearly half an hour. What actually transpired will never be known to the world, but it was sufficient to bring a glimmer of tears to the eyes of the old deputy. In half an hour the lovers had parted and the excitement of the entrance of Nina had passed.

GUARDING THE JAIL.

At 6 o'clock there was an influx of deputy sheriffs to the jail. Men who for years had been serving civil writs and had not bothered their heads about hangings came in. They all wore heavy overcoats, and in the right-hand pockets of these were bulky objects, which to the eyes of the experienced were plainly revolvers. Orders were given forbidding the entrance of any one not connected with the press or Sheriff's office. Then some of the deputies went to supper and matters quieted down.

THEIR LAST NIGHT.

How the Condemned Whiled Away the Weary Hours.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] It was at 7:35 o'clock that Rev. Dr. Bolton of the First Methodist Church called on Parsons. His visit lasted about three minutes, and his efforts to get Parsons to consider spiritual matters were of no avail. At 8:20 o'clock Spies, Fischer and Engel were taken from the rooms in which they had bade farewell to their relatives and confined to their cells. These were soon closely guarded. An armed deputy stood in front of each barred door. Inside the cell of each prisoner was a lantern, while a table was placed outside, and on this was a lamp, thus giving the guards an opportunity to watch the movement of each prisoner.

MRS. PARSONS CREATES A SCARE.

Mrs. Lucy Parsons created a scare in the Criminal Court building about 10 o'clock. She walked down Michigan street to the main entrance and was admitted to the hallway by the armed guards. She had with her a lady friend. Approaching the door which leads to the jail yard she demanded permission to proceed. This was denied her by the Deputy Sheriff, who was acting under direction of Sheriff Mattson.

"But I must go in and see my husband," exclaimed Mrs. Parsons.

"You cannot," was the firm reply. Then the dusky wife of the Anarchist threw up her hands and fell to the floor in a dead faint. It took over twenty minutes to bring her to consciousness, but when this was done she was escorted from the building. Parsons was informed of the episode.

PARSONS VERY RESTLESS.

At 11:30 Parsons is still awake and pacing his cell with restless step. Occasionally his sharp face shows up in the glare of the lantern sitting in front of his door, and the light in his eyes seems brighter than in the early evening.

Fischer and Spies sit on their beds well back from the cell doors and say but little.

DEFIANT TO THE LAST.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—At 1 o'clock a change into a tirade against the courts.

Rev. Dr. Bolton was received by Spies. The divine asked him if he would not accept of spiritual consolation. Spies declared that he had no use for a clergyman.

"I'll pray for you all night," cried the Doctor.

"Pray for yourself," returned Spies, "you need it more. At 11 o'clock Spies lay down in his cot and closed his eyes, but he did not sleep. Several times he got up for a drink of water, but his every movement betokened a firmness which was astonishing. So it was with the rest of the Anarchists. Parsons had the nerve to entertain his guard with a song. His selection was "Annie Lamrie." Unusual quiet prevailed in the jail. The only noise in the cell-room was the low voices of a few deputies and the rapid ticking of the telegraph instrument, which was telling the world of the last hours of the four Anarchists.

THE SCAFFOLD.

The erection of the scaffold began at 10:15. The scaffold is the same used in the hanging of the three Italian murderers, but has been lengthened for the purpose of swinging off the four Anarchists at once.

SYMPATHY.

New York Trades Threaten to Have a Big Demonstration.

NEW YORK, Nov 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Schlepit, editor of a labor paper, made application to the police today for permission for 10,000 socialists to parade tonight to express disapproval of the hanging of the Chicago Anarchists. In view of Lingg's suicide, Superintendent Murray summoned his captains and gave them specific instructions how to act. They will furnish a detail of men and all reserves will be held in readiness for instant service.

The Federated German Trades of this city have arranged for a parade and demonstration tonight, as a protest against what they call "Contemplated judicial murders in Chicago next Friday." Every drum was to be muffled and every instrument of music draped in black.

The federation of trades unions and sympathizers with Socialism paraded tonight in protestation of the hanging of the Anarchists at Chicago tomorrow. No disturbance occurred. A long line of men 30,000 strong passed down Broad street with red and black flags, all heavily draped in crape, bands playing the dead march from Saul and the Marseillies. The transparencies bore inscriptions far more blood-thirsty than anything in the general conduct or appearance of the marching men. Among the legends were these: "Blood for Blood," "Proletariat," "Beware the Insurrection," "The Gallows to Death," "Seven Noble Men You Kill, Savages, Beware," "Bombard Us and We'll Dynamite You," "Wage Slaves, the Day of Your Liberation Is at Hand."

NO CHICAGO DEMONSTRATION.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Officials of the Central Labor Union say that they did request all members who could consistently do so, to make tomorrow a holiday out of respect to their condemned brethren, but that very few besides the bakers would stop work. They deny that a grand street demonstration will be made.

THE BOMB-THROWER.

A New York Lawyer Says He Knows His Whereabouts.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] Attorney A. H. Wagener has sent a telegram to Capt. Black in Chicago, stating positively that the man who threw the bomb at the Haymarket is in New York city. Wagener was seen by a reporter early this (Friday) morning, and said that Franz Mayhoff, in Sing Sing for attempting to defraud the Greenwich Insurance Company, had sworn to an affidavit in which he stated that a man named Klimann Scheutz, with whom he became acquainted in January, had told him that he was present at the Haymarket meeting and had thrown the bomb. Wagener says he has great faith in the affidavit and that he asked Superintendent Murray to have searched the premises occupied by Scheutz, but that the Superintendent refused unless a warrant was sworn out. Mr. Wagener says he has no interest in the case, except from common humanity. Scheutz, it is said, has been known to have been an officer in one of the foremost societies of Anarchists in the country.

THE MILITIA READY.

A Strong Force Prepared to Prevent a Rescue.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] "What preparations have you made against possible trouble as a result of tomorrow's execution?" asked a reporter of Gen. Fitzsimmons, commander of the First Brigade of State troops.

"I can outline no plans," said the General. "It would not be policy. I will say, however, that 500 men of the First Regiment and 750 of the Second can be thrown into the field for action in very short notice. Seven hundred to 800 men of the Third and Fourth regiments can be gotten here fully equipped for duty in three hours. I do not anticipate trouble, however."

"Will your men use blank cartridges, or fire over the heads of the crowd in case of riot and the order to fire is given?"

"We have no blank cartridges," said Gen. Fitzsimmons, "and will not fire unless we fire to do execution."

A LAST APPEAL.

Parsons's Lawyer Makes a Vain Effort for a Habeas Corpus.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Attorney Solomon appeared before Judge Tuley this afternoon and made his application for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of A. R. Parsons. His points were that the process was void, the record saying that defendant was present when he was absent. He claimed that the order of court directing the execution of the Anarchists on November 11th was unconstitutional and void, inasmuch as such final process must read: "In the name of the People of the State of Illinois." He read many decisions in support of his point. One of Mr. Solomon's main points was that the Illinois Supreme Court should have returned the case to the lower court, where sentence should have again been pronounced. Neglect to do this, he argued, was a fatal error. The writ was refused by Judge Tuley.

Another Bomb Found.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—A bomb was found tonight in the rear of the residence of James Brayton, one of the jurors who convicted the Anarchists. He has received several threatening letters since sentence was pronounced on them. Two officers were detailed to guard his house.

Preliminary Preparation for the New Salt Lake Route.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—[Special.] Detective Silvey, to whom the warrant for John K. Moore's arrest has been entrusted, has so far failed to find him. The old land claimant has not shown up since the Grand Jury filed its indictment against him with Judge Murphy on last Friday. Whether he has skipped into Mexico in search of another title to a city or taken a trip to Canada, is not known to his nearest friends. Even Lawyer Kimley has not seen or heard of him lately, although this gentleman filed in the United States Surveyor-General's office, since the indictment was found, what purports to be "the" genuine grant against the city. Proof of such filing was verified by the Surveyor-General's chief deputy before the Grand Jury at the recent session of that body. The opinion of the police that Moore would show up with his bondsmen at an early date, seems to have been a case of misplaced confidence. W.

SAN DIEGO.

Discovery of Four Mysterious Coffins with Human Remains.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 10.—[Special.] While laborers were excavating for a culvert on B street today, only four blocks from the principal business street of the city, at a few feet below the surface of the ground four coffins were unearthed. One coffin, on being opened, was found to contain, mixed with dirt, the skull and other bones of a human skeleton. Portions of leather, boots and woolen socks, in a fair state of preservation, were found in the same coffin, and particles of hair adhered to the skull. The four coffins were found but a few feet apart, but only one contained human remains, the other three being filled with dirt. Old residents cannot remember the existence of a burying ground there, and the affair at present is enveloped in mystery. S.

District Attorney Bruner positively refused to issue warrants for the arrest, saying that the parties are not guilty of abduction, as charged.

STRIKING WORKMEN.

Graders on the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad Strike for Pay.

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Today Sheriff Colgan received information from Glen Allen that the graders on the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad had struck, and trouble between the graders and paymaster was liable to end in violence. Upon his arrival on the scene he was informed that the misunderstanding was between the paymaster and the foreman. One division of the force, consisting of forty men, had quit work when the foreman quit work, and the men under his charge followed suit. The paymaster became frightened and left the scene for his hotel. The men went to the hotel to demand their time, and when he saw them coming the paymaster imagined they were coming to do him injury and drew his pistol. Sheriff Colgan inquired of the men what they intended to do, and they replied all they wanted was their money. They were paid off and made no demonstration of violence.

THE FRUIT GROWERS.

Strong Resolutions Adopted for Protection of Forests.

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] The Fruit Growers' Convention this morning discussed the subject of fruit transportation, and a committee was appointed to use its best endeavors to get a reduction on freight on east-bound fruit.

At the afternoon session, resolutions were adopted that all unsold school and other timber lands belonging to the State of California should be withdrawn from entry and sale, and be placed by the Legislature under control and management of the State Board of Forestry, and that full power be granted that board to control the sale, renewal and preservation of timber upon them, provided that all funds accruing from timber sales or otherwise be turned over to the State school fund by said board, after the necessary expenses had been deducted.

Resolutions were also passed requesting Senators Hearst and Stanford, and the Congressmen of the State, to use all proper means to secure the passage of the forestry bill recommended by the State Board of Forestry.

Dr. Kimball of Hayward's read a paper on the apricot. He was followed by President Cooper with an essay on the cultivation of the olive.

At 5 o'clock the convention adjourned till 8 o'clock in the evening, when drying and canning fruits was discussed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] An application was made to the Superior Court today for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of John A. Dimmig, who is held on suspicion of complicity in the Benhayon case. The matter will be heard tomorrow.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL ACT.

The Supreme Court decided this afternoon, in the case of the City of San Francisco against the London and Globe Insurance Company, that the act requiring foreign insurance companies doing business in California to pay 1 per cent. of their gross earnings into the treasury of the counties maintaining paid fire departments, for the benefit of disabled firemen, is unconstitutional.

The decision in the main hinges on the point that the law is contrary to section 19, article II of the Constitution, which says that "the Legislature shall have no power to impose taxes upon counties, cities, towns or other public or municipal corporations, or upon the inhabitants of property thereof, for county, city, town or other municipal purposes, but may, by general laws, vest in corporate authorities thereof, power to assess and collect taxes for such purposes." The Supreme Court held that the act in question provided that the fire departments, and had always been left to the local authorities; and the fact that the State at large had an interest in the efficiency of the departments did not render the end any the less a municipal one. Accordingly the judgment of the lower court is reversed by the Supreme Court.

A SENSATION IN A COURTROOM.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—In the second trial of James Harkins, indicted for bribing United States Commissioner O'Beirne, and also indicted for receiving a bribe, and the jury having disagreed in the first trial, O'Beirne today startled the court by acknowledging that he had received from Harkins, on June 20, 1882, a check on the Watsonville Bank for $1200 in consideration of his services in connection with the trial of Harkins for opium-smuggling in 1882.

ANOTHER CASE OF SMALLPOX.

Another case of smallpox was reported today, the patient being a lady residing on Pine street near Van Ness avenue. She was removed to the hospital.

EASTERN NEWS.

Sheridan on Soldiers' Homes and Pensions.

Changes to Be Made in the Cabinet on the Meeting of Congress.

Cotton Gamblers in New York Excited Over a Tumble in the Market.

Reports on the Growing Crops from the Department of Agriculture—A Dominion Conference Lays Down a Platform for the Provinces—Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] Gen. Sheridan as president of the Board of Commissioners on Soldiers' Homes in his report sets forth an evil which gives an inmate his pension while the home supplies his wants. It is recommended that inmates who have had less than ten years' army service be required to surrender their pension to the home while they remain in it; that those having ten to fifteen years' service surrender two-thirds; those having fifteen to twenty years, one-third, while men of twenty years' service be permitted to remain pensioners.

ANOTHER DIVIDEND.

The Comptroller of the Currency has declared a fourth dividend of 10 per cent., payable on and after October 28, 1887, in favor of creditors of the First National Bank of Leadville, Colo., making in all 40 per cent. on claims proved, amounting to over $200,000.

LAMAR AND VILAS.

THE CORN CROP.

Report of the Department of Agriculture for the Season.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] The Department of Agriculture reports a yield of corn of 19.9 bushels per acre on about 73,000,000 acres, or 453,000,000 bushels. About 5,000,000 acres is reported as abandoned before ripening. On the acreage planted, the average would be 18.6 bushels per acre, the same as in 1881. The corn surplus States average slightly less than in 1881, the thirty-one other States more. The final record will be changed only by slight adjustments. The quality of the crop is much lower than usual in the dry region, and the proportion of merchantable corn is considerably below average.

OTHER CROPS.

The potato yield has been reduced first by drought in the West, and later by rot, mainly in the Atlantic States. It is about the same as in 1881, or fifty-four bushels on an average per acre, making the crop about 184,000,000, against 163,000,000 bushels last year.

The tobacco yield per acre is very low in shipping and cutting. The leaf belt, especially in the West, will make scarcely more than a third of a crop. The yield of cigar leaf is nearly normal.

THE DOMINION'S DESIRES.

Resolutions Adopted at the Late Conference at Quebec.

TORONTO, (Ont.), Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] The resolutions adopted at the winter Provincial Conference held at Quebec recently were given to the press last night. This conference was attended by representatives of the five chief provinces of the Dominion. The conference declared for the limiting of the federal veto power; recommended that Senators should be nominated by the local Legislatures and should not sit for life; formulated a plan for a rearrangement of the financial basis of the union under which up to certain limits subsidies to provinces shall be payable according to the population as determined by the last decennial census; favored providing facilities for a speedy settlement of the disputes between the central and local governments; condemned the disallowance of the Manitoba Railway acts by the Dominion government and adopted a motion in reference to a full reciprocity with the United States.

COTTON COLLAPSES.

A Bear Panic in New York—Several Firms in Trouble.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—[By the Associated Press.] There is a bear panic on the cotton 'change. Reports of trouble are current. Different futures have advanced sixty points since noon, on publication of crop reports confirming the estimate of a short crop. Several houses are said to be short over 100,000 bales each, and one house is reported to have had to provide $300,000 additional margins. Sales between calls amount to over 700,000 bales, and trading continues enormous.

President McCosh Resigns.

PRINCETON (N. J.), Nov. 10.—At the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Princeton College this morning, Dr. McCosh resigned the presidency of the college.

In tendering his reignation, Dr. McCosh said the college had reached the point he had been striving for, and, being an old man, he thought he had earned a release from work. It is believed that his only reason for retiring, which is fixed for next February, is to have a younger man at the head of the institution.

Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Dispatches received here this morning state that the condition of the German Crown Prince is critical, and that the Prince will return to Berlin on Friday, where another operation will be performed on his throat.

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—A dispatch from San Remo says that Dr. Mackenzie admits that the growth in the Crown Prince's throat is a cancer, and he deprecates operation, which he declares will be both useless and dangerous. The Crown Prince also opposes an operation. This dispatch also says that the Crown Prince will return to Berlin forthwith.

ROME, Nov. 10.—An earthquake has occurred in northern Italy, but no fatal results are reported.

ABOLISH THE BASEMENT.

Sanitary Objections to the Housekeeper's Pest, a Cellar Kitchen.

[Popular Science Monthly.]

A well-ventilated basement is almost an impossibility from its low level, and it is so difficult to get our ideal conditions perfectly executed, that practically they are seldom met with. I have seen a great many cases of sickness which seemed to me due to basement living, and many cases of tuberculosis which seem to have been there developed. The last is particularly noticeable among servant girls of foreign birth. In the experience of physicians in some sections, it is rare to find a servant girl living and working in a low basement who has good health, though previous to coming to this country, and being subjected to such conditions, good health is stated to be the general rule. Many people have attacks of sickness, following a time of exposure in a basement, with great regularity. Would it not be better for house-builders and architects to plan for dwellings built more above ground? More of a lot has to be sacrificed, but perhaps enough may be saved in healthfulness and stair-climbing to compensate for the loss. City yards are of slight value at best. A good cellar is gained by such a change, and up-stairs dining-rooms and kitchens are not only luxuries, but, it may be argued, almost necessities.

A Preacher Denounces a Cold Church.

[Reading Times.]

The Rev. Jonathan Nichols, pastor of the Baptist Church, Phœnixville, rather astonished his congregation on Sunday morning, soon after the opening of the service, by saying that he had prepared a sermon for that morning, but as he found the church was too cold and uncomfortable for any one to preach in, and much more so for the congregation to sit in their pews and listen, he would now dismiss them, but before doing so he stated that he had notified the trustees on more than one occasion that coal was needed, but no attention had been paid to it. He thought this was a hint that they would understand. L. B. Kaler, one of the trustees, then took opportunity to hand out some envelopes in which he would like the congregation to contribute toward the coal fund, after which the congregation was dismissed.

An Unlovely Character.

An experience with a woman who makes life a burden to everybody about her by her relentless insistence on continual flattery as the price of peace in her house is thus discussed by the New York Graphic: She has a painful doubt as to whether she is the most lovable being on the globe. She insists that everyone who comes within range shall contribute to strengthen her wavering conviction on this point. Any conversation in her presence that does not feed it wounds it. You cannot discuss Mr. Brown's pretty conservatory, because that is reflecting on madam's house plants; you can't speak of Mrs. Green's beautiful housekeeping, because madam straightway pouts, because you are intimating that she is not domestic. The things that every young girl ought to be taught first, last, and all the time as a recipe for social success is to appear to efface herself.

San Gabriel.

MISCELLANEOUS AND OTHER DOINGS.

SAN GABRIEL, Nov. 7.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Burglars have lately begun operations in this vicinity. On Friday evening they raided the room of our deputy postmaster, Mr. O. M. Baughman, in Mrs. Slosson's residence, near the depot. Mr. Baughman is at present the only occupant, and as the house is somewhat isolated and surrounded by trees and shrubbery, there was little danger of detection of the criminals. Eight or ten dollars in cash, some silk handkerchiefs, a number of cigars, a pocket knife and some other small articles were taken. The burglars seemed to be in no hurry, as they lighted a candle and thoroughly prospected the room. A rifle, banjo and other bulky articles were not disturbed. Mr. Baughman has removed his valuables to safer quarters, so that future prospectors will not be so well rewarded.

On Saturday night a man broke into Sunny Slope winery, but was discovered before he had secured any plunder except a demijohn of brandy. He was arrested by Constables Fuller and de la Ossa, and on Monday sent up for thirty days by Justice Bishop. A Mexican on the same evening entered a private house at the Mission, and finding no one in but the lady of the house, demanded something to eat. She referred him to a restaurant further down the street, when he drew a knife and chased the woman to a neighbors. The constables being notified and given a description of the man and a peculiar looking greyhound by which he was accompanied, succeeded in locating him at Chapman's ranch. As a reward for his gallant conduct he will be boarded by the county for the next thirty days.

Work on the new hotels and cottages is being prosecuted vigorously, and there is every prospect of their being finished on time.

The frame of Rev. Bovard's cottage is up, and the roof is ready for the shingles.

O. H. Burke's two-story frame will soon be prepared to resist the winter rains. As he intends to make a thorough job of it, he does not expect to be ready for the "house-warming" much before Christmas.

Mr. Conrad Lopez of Los Angeles and Miss B. B. Lopez of San Gabriel were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. Bernard Smith at the old Mission Church on the 14th inst. Mr. John McKay of Savannah and Miss Carmen Lopez, sister of the bride, acted as groomsman and bridesmaid respectively. The happy couple left immediately for Santa Barbara, where they intend to make their future home. They were accompanied as far as Los Angeles by a number of friends.

Joseph Heslope is boring an artesian well on his home place north of San Gabriel. He expects to find flowing water at a depth of between 500 and 700 feet. He is using ten-inch pipe, and the machinery is being run by steam power.

The agent of the insurance company that held the risk on the Rose schoolhouse has been around to the Captain's office to settle.

O. H. Burke and family left for San Francisco on Saturday to be gone a week or ten days.

A resident of San Gabriel left his coat hanging in his barn for a short time the other morning. He presently resumed his coat and started down town. He stopped to talk to a gentleman he met in the street, when he felt something moving under his coat collar and in the vicinity of his collar bone. To the dismay of his friend he jumped wildly into the air, and commenced to yell and strike himself. His friend thought that he had certainly gone crazy, and he was not at all reassured when he besought him to strike him and strike hard. His friend did give him two or three half-hearted strokes that did not seem to do any good. The seemingly demented man continued to yell and jump and strike himself on the chest, the shoulder, the arm. He finally ran to a fence and pounded and pressed his arm against it. Calming a little, with some assistance he succeeded in divesting himself of his coat, which he threw wildly from him. One of those who had been attracted by the antics of the gentleman picked up his coat and shook it, when out dropped—what do you think? a poor, harmless little mouse, pounded and crushed to death.

Land and Water Company.

29,000 Acres 29,000

—OF—

THE BEST CITRUS LAND IN THE STATE!

Offered for sale in twenty-acre blocks, and can be bought in five, ten, fifteen or twenty-acre subdivisions.

Lytle Creek Water Piped on Each Lot.

Avenues 150 Feet in Width Traverse the Tract.

Water Furnished from a Covered Cement Ditch.

This land lies on the elevated plain directly west of San Bernardino city. The plain is a vast elevated table-land, with just enough of gentle undulation to break the monotony of the landscape.

Owing to the elevation, frost is practically unknown. Flowers in myriads bloom during the winter, the tenderest tomato sprigs are unscathed by frost, and the orange blossoms bloom in beauty throughout the winter. The view is one of the noblest and most picturesque in Nature. Each twenty-acre lot has a fine road at each end.

There are 29,000 acres in this tract, but 10,000 acres only are as yet surveyed. The town, RIALTO, is located near the center of this 10,000-acre tract and on the California Central.

The California Central and the Southern Pacific both traverse this great tract, and in all probability the Southern Pacific's parallel route will soon add a third railroad to this princely citrus tract. The western line of the tract is about two miles distant from the San Bernardino Courthouse.

The plain grows as fine oranges as the world has ever seen and the finest quality of citrus fruit generally, as buyers can see for themselves. There is no better raisin grape land in California. In fact all sub-tropical productions flourish to perfection.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Money on call was easy at 1 to 1½ per cent.; closed offered at 4.

Prime mercantile paper, 6@8 per cent.

Sterling exchange, dull and steady at 4.81¾ for 60-day bills; 4.85 for demand.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The stock market today was weak almost all day long, and prices tonight show material losses for all active stocks. Dealings for the most part were dull because the bulls took little interest in the market apparently. The immediate depressing influence was the illness of the German Crown Prince, which caused the throwing over of stocks in Europe and selling by foreigners here as a natural consequence. The excitement in Chicago over the Anarchists was made the means of intimidating buyers by the bears, to which was added some hammering.

Government bonds were dull and steady.

CUMMINGS—At her residence in Savanna, after great suffering, Mrs. Mary A. Cummings, on Thursday, the 3d of November.

BROWN—At Los Angeles on Sunday morning, November 6th, Albert Edwin, infant son of Edwin and Lizzie Brown, aged 4 months and 21 days.

An Opportunity Seldom Offered.

The Santa Fe Railroad Company are largely interested in the new town of Santa Fe Springs, at Fulton Wells. Consequently, all the projected improvements will be rapidly pushed until completed. This is the only resort within seventy miles of Los Angeles where first-class medicinal springs are found. It will, therefore, always be filled with health-seekers. The enterprising firm of Byram & Poindexter have secured 200 acres immediately adjoining the best side of this town of Santa Fe Springs, and will sell no town lots at all. They offer it only in blocks of from four to ten acres, at low acre prices, on easy terms. This gives buyers an opportunity to make handsome villa homes or small farms, just beside a railroad depot, handsome new hotel and other extensive improvements. Any purchaser of his property can double his money by subdividing into lots. Call on us for maps and further particulars. Byram & Poindexter, 27 West First street, Los Angeles.

TWO FRIENDS MEET.

"Hello! old fellow. What have you been doing to yourself? You look like a subject for the undertaker," exclaimed the man on the right.

"I have been taking mercury and potash mixtures until they have nearly ruined me," squeaked the old man on crutches.

"And I," said the other, "have been taking the genuine Swift's Specific, which has built me up from the first dose."

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC.

Nature's own remedy, made from roots gathered from the forests of Georgia. The method by which it is made was obtained by a half-breed from the Creek Indians, who inhabited a certain portion of Georgia, which was communicated to one of the early settlers, and thus the formula has been handed down to the present day. The demand has been increasing until a $100,000 laboratory is now necessary to supply the trade. A foreign demand has been created, and enlarged facilities will be necessary to meet it. This great

GREAT BALL.

PHILADELPHIA, FOUR; LOS ANGELES, THREE.

The Best Game of Base-Ball Ever Witnessed Here — The Second Nine in the League Has to Hustle to Get There.

The Philadelphias were compelled to play ball yesterday, and the game was interesting to the last inning. Our home nine had been strengthened since Tuesday by the addition of Whitehead at third base. He played his position very creditably, and his reliability at the third bag will tend to inspire confidence in the balance of the nine. Lohman at left field appears to be the weak spot now, and rumor says his position will be filled by another at the next game, on Saturday. Home runs were not so frequent as in the preceding game, probably because of the removal of the diamond to a position more northerly. This change is practical and probably had its effect in the closeness of the game. McCarthy pitched a better game than before, and the opposite might truthfully be said of Vieu. Some of the Phillies are unkind enough to suggest that he is not in his best form because of being too deeply in love with the beautiful lady whom he has recently married and who is accompanying him on the western trip.

Some 700 people, with a large sprinkling of the fairer sex, made up a good-natured audience.

Quest will be the main stay of the club, and with proper care and with diligent practice they will become worthy representatives of the city.

Manager Hart, who has spent three winters on the coast, and who is probably as good a judge of base-ball players as there is in the country, voluntarily announced yesterday to a Times reporter that the Los Angeles nine will in a few weeks out-bat and out-play any nine in the State.

The game played yesterday will inspire the Los Angeles nine to play great games on Saturday and Sunday, and many are of the opinion that one or both will be won by them.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

The Phillies again won the toss and sent the Los Angeles to the bat.

FIRST INNING.

Whitehead first toed the plate and reached first on balls. Through two consecutive errors by McGuire he was allowed to reach third. Bentle was given the same privileges as Whitehead, who came home on a passed ball. Dooley could not find the ball, and made way for Quest who hit a long drive over Wood's head, on which Bentle scored. Graves was thrown out at first by Vieu, and McCarthy never reached first. The new score board near the left field fence marked a large 2 opposite Los Angeles. A ripple of applause followed, which was slight compared to the shout which arose when the Phillies retired at the end of their half inning with a goose egg. Wood reached first on balls, and got to second by Mulvey's hit. The "only" Fogarty struck out, and Irwin determined to bang it for a home run. It was low enough, however, for Dooley to gather it in and return it to George in time to make a beautiful double play. Two to nothing was a good beginning to the best game ever played in Los Angeles.

SECOND INNING.

George opened the inning by fanning the air often enough to retire. Lohman tapped lightly to Wood and stopped running to first. Woodman spared the ash by striking out.

The Phillies, in their half of the second inning, determined to assume the lead, and Person waited long enough to be sent to first on balls. McGuire hit a high fly to center, which Quest collared after a long run. Foster hit a vicious one to third, but Whitehead was there, and by a beautiful double play to Quest and from Quest to George, earned merited applause.

THIRD INNING.

Whitehead was allowed a life at first by a slow throw from Vieu to Wood. Bentle followed with a hit which might have been safe but for reliable Foster, who made a grand stop and got it to Wood just in time. Dooley sent the sphere to center and gave Fogarty an opportunity to make a beautiful running catch.

The Phillies did no better in this inning than in the first and second. Vieu succumbed to Bentle, and J. Fogarty hit a fierce ball at McCarthy, who held it in his left hand after a jump. This was the brilliant catch of the day. Big Wood scored a clean base hit, but Fogarty retired the side by sending a fly to Lohman.

Still the score stood 2-0 in favor of Los Angeles, and the home nine were given encouragement to the echo by the spectators.

FOURTH INNING.

J. Fogarty dispelled all doubts as to his title of first-class fielder by nipping in quick succession two different fly balls from the bats of Quest and Bentle. McCarthy sent a hot one to Foster, who threw him out at first.

The Phillies were disposed of in less time almost than it takes to tell it. Mulvey's high fly was seized by Quest, and Irwin hit safe to left field, but Person's hit was straight into McCarthy's hands, and he, with the assistance of Quest and George, repeated the beautiful double play amid deafening cheers—partly for the double play, and partly for the goose-egg just administered, which was the fourth in succession, and kept the score 2-0 in favor of the home team.

FIFTH INNING.

George opened the inning by retiring on strikes, and Woodman closed it by again sparing the ash in four vain attempts to hit the ball. Between the two Lohman flied out on a foul fly to McGuire.

McGuire took the bat with a resolution to break the ice for the Phillies, but Quest would not have it, and threw him out at first. Foster was disposed of in a similar way, and Vieu fell an easy victim from McCarthy to George. Five goose eggs for the second league club was a great record for the new Los Angeles material with but three days' practice. This is really promising of big things to come. Still they stood 2-0, with great shouting.

SIXTH INNING.

The Los Angeles did not remain long on the players' bench this inning. Woodman batted the ball toward Wood, and could not beat it to first. Bentle went out from Irwin to Wood, and Dooley seemed to have lost sight of the ball and fanned out.

The Phillies began run-getting in this inning, and tied the score. Part of the blame for allowing the score can be laid at Lohman's door, who muffed J. Fogarty's fly, allowing him to reach second. Wood retired on a high fly to Dooley at right field. Fogerty followed with a long safe hit to left field, and brought J. Fogarty from second to home, scoring the first run. Fogarty stole second before Mulvey drove it to Whitehead, who fumbled it. Irwin reached first on called balls, and this filled the bases. Person stepped to the plate amid great excitement, but did not remain any longer than it takes to strike out. The bases were still filled when McQuinn drove a daisy to right field and brought Fogarty home and tied the score. Mulvey tried to steal home, when Graves threw to second, but Quest returned it to Graves in time to put him out. The excitement was constantly increasing, and the tied score added to it.

SEVENTH INNING.

Quest trotted to first on balls, and McGuire muffed Graves' fourth strike and threw wild to Wood, allowing Quest to reach third. McCarthy put a hot grounder to Irwin, who stopped Quest in his wild desire to score. George retired the side by the assistance of Foster to Wood.

The Phillies tallied again in their inning, and the home enthusiasts lost their hopefulness. Foster retired on strikes. Vieu sent a fly to left-field, which Lohman could have caught with a little exertion. J. Fogarty drove the sphere to Bentle, who threw Vieu out at second. J. Fogarty stole second and Wood lifted it over the right-field fence for the allowed two bases, and J. Fogarty came home on the hit. Fogarty fell a victim from Bentle to George.

EIGHTH INNING.

Lohman attempted run-getting in this inning, but was caught trying to steal second. Woodman reached at first. Whitehead tapped as easy one which Vieu allowed to roll by, and stole second. Bentle was given first on balls. Dooley was thrown out by Irwin to first.

Mulvey did not reach first, but Irwin was sent there on balls, and on Person's hit to left-field tried to steal third, but was declared out. McGuire hit a hot one to Whitehead but did not attempt first.

NINTH INNING.

Bentle expired at first on Foster's throw, and Graves drove a beautiful long ball to center-field, which McCarthy followed with a safe grounder to right-field for two bases, and Graves reached home in safety. McCarthy was caught napping at third and Lohman fanned out.

The Phillies were obliged to score one run to win, and did it. Foster was given base on balls; Vieu came to their help with a two-bagger and brought Foster home with the winning run, finishing the most exciting and best played game yet witnessed in Los Angeles. Appended is the score:

GONE DAFT.

A Young Demimondaine Becomes Hopelessly Insane.

Nellie Ryan, or, as she is known in this city, Flora Howard, was yesterday adjudged insane by a commission, consisting of Drs. Maynard, Seymour and Ross, and committed to the Insane Asylum at Stockton by Judge Gardiner. The girl was an inmate of "Mother" Brown's bagnio, where she has resided since she came here from South Easton, Pa. She has been a hard drinker for some time, and several weeks ago began to show signs of insanity, when she jumped out of a window and ran down into the river bottom. She imagined that some one was after her who wanted to kill her and cut her up, and gave away her clothes for some old garments in which to disguise herself. She was taken to the County Hospital, where she was kept until she became so violent that it was necessary to lock her up in the jail, where she remained until yesterday. She is apparently hopelessly insane, and while, at times, she is quite rational, is liable at any time to become violent and do harm, either to herself or some one else. The girl is said to be respectably connected, her relatives in the East being well-to-do people.
